Affairs, UCLA

About Eno Center for Transportation and the Leadership Awards Dinner

The Eno Center for Transportation has been the leader in its field of study for nearly 100 years and provides government and industry leaders with timely and relevant research and policy recommendations, as well as top caliber professional development. As part of Eno's Future Leaders Development Conference (LDC), 20 of the nation's top graduate students in transportation gather for a week in our nation's capital to meet with federal officials and leaders of business and nonprofit organizations. To be accepted as Fellows into the LDC program, students must demonstrate leadership and the potential to assume a senior role in the transportation industry.

Their LDC experience culminates in the Leadership Awards Dinner on June 8, 2017 from 6:00pm-9:00pm. Hosts include Former U.S. Secretaries of Transportation James L. Burnley, Norman Y. Mineta, and Mary E. Peters.
