

Group Membership

Membership with Eno provides you with the research and expertise of Eno's multimodal transportation experts, as well as connecting you with our network of thought leaders, innovators, and visionaries in the transportation industry. As a member, you are part of the conversation to help Eno answer the difficult questions facing transportation today and generate actionable policy recommendations. Membership gives organizations the chance to look ahead to the problems and solutions of tomorrow and ask what's next for transportation.

Titanium Corporate: $50,000 or Public Interest*: $35,000

 Member-only webinars + resources (incl. membership directory, job board,	 50 Subscriptions to Eno Transportation Weekly (ETW)	 Three Flexible Sponsorship Benefits or Tuition Waivers of your choice	 Participate as thought leader in Eno's research initiatives, groups, and committees	 Logo and listing as Featured Eno Center Sponsor on website homepage	 Primary Sponsor of an Eno policy briefing, educational event, or workshop
---	--	--	--	--	--

Platinum Corporate: $25,000 or Public Interest*: $17,500

 Member-only webinars + resources	 25 Subscriptions to ETW	 Two Flexible Benefits of your choice	 Join Eno's research initiatives, groups, and committees	 Logo and listing as Featured Eno Center Sponsor
---	--	---	--	--

Gold Corporate: $15,000 or Public Interest*: $10,000

 Member-only webinars + resources	 15 Subscriptions to ETW	 Flexible Benefit of your choice	 Join Eno's research initiatives
---	--	--	--

"Eno shares our vision to make the future of mobility safe, affordable, and accessible for everyone, everywhere. Transportation is a means to important ends – economic prosperity, independence, and making the most of our communities – and through our Eno membership, we work alongside the foremost minds focused on forward-looking solutions to the biggest mobility challenges."

Andrew Salzberg, Uber

Silver Corporate: $10,000 or Public Interest*: $7,000

 Member-only webinars + resources	 10 Subscriptions to ETW	 Flexible Benefit of your choice
---	--	--

"As the national media has steered towards short, bite-sized pieces of content and sensationalist headlines, ETW has remained dedicated to reporting on policy developments with integrity and thoroughness. ETW provides actionable insights into the historical, political, and policy implications of bills, regulations, and innovations that are shaping transportation today."

James H. Burnley, Former US Secretary of Transportation

Bronze Corporate: $5,000 or Public Interest*: $3,500

 Member-only webinars + resources	 5 Subscriptions to ETW
---	---

* Public interest rates are available for government agencies and small nonprofits with budgets less than $3 million

For more information regarding Eno membership, contact Karen Price at 202-879-4706 or kprice@enotrans.org
 Eno does not seek or accept financial support that would undermine our institutional values of integrity, independence, objectivity, quality, and relevance or compromise our commitment to remain unbiased and independent. Sponsorship opportunities are offered on a first-come/first-serve basis and dependent on availability.