

Eno Center for Transportation

Mission, Vision, and Strategy

The Eno Center for Transportation is nearly a century old. Yet despite its age, Eno continues to remain ahead of the curve and remain wholly relevant in the ever-evolving world of transportation. We do this by embracing the notion that exciting change is underway, yet remain fully rooted in the realities of what is possible.

Mission

Eno shapes public debate on critical multimodal transportation issues and builds an innovative network of transportation professionals.

Vision

Eno's vision is for a transportation system that fosters economic vitality, advances social equity and improves the quality of life for all.

Values

- Objectivity
- Integrity
- Independence
- Quality
- Relevance

Strategy #1:

Shape public debate on critical multimodal transportation issues

Remain at the forefront of transportation policy issues across the U.S through a sharpened focus on timely and relevant topics

Add value and increase our visibility at the state, local, and metropolitan level

Strategy #2:

Build an innovative network of transportation professionals

Expand leadership and training partnerships and collaboration with other organizations

Provide valuable information and lessons to enhance courses and, in the process, reveal new or expanded policy research opportunities

Strategy #3:

Achieve efficiency and financial sustainability while preserving independence

Continue to ensure Eno's work meets all standards for independence and rigor and safeguard our reputation

Explore new opportunities for funding to ensure Eno's continued growth

Strategy #4:

Make Eno a higher functioning and focused organization

Maximize internal efficiency to ensure success in a fiscally-constrained environment

Maintain Eno's strong and dedicated staff and high-caliber Boards
