

Accessing Your Account (Corporate)

Our membership system includes a number of useful pages that will make managing your account even easier than before. In addition to an individual account, our new portal includes a corporate account management system that makes handling memberships a breeze.

To start, navigate to the “Account” tab located at the top of your member home page.

Welcome!

Welcome to your newly redesigned

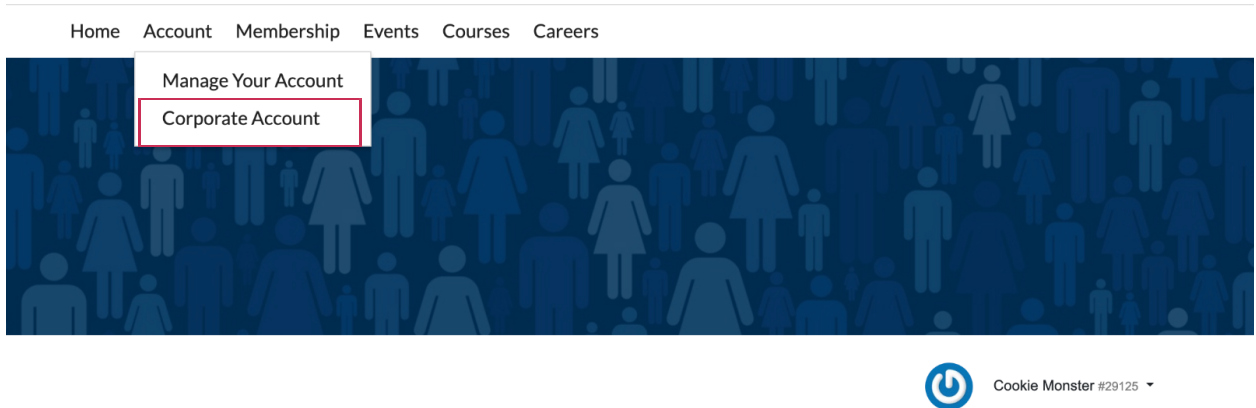

Member Portal

We're excited to introduce your improved Member Portal! Designed with you in mind, to streamline your digital experience by enabling easy online account and membership management.

With the introduction of our new Member Directory, you can now connect with your peers with just a click. Be sure to update your profile while you are here - and let us know if you'd prefer to opt out.

And for those looking to advance their career or find new opportunities, our brand new Career Center is a must-visit. You can upload your resume and browse listings. Later in the Fall, the Member Portal will also be your hub to apply for one of our world-class leadership courses.

Next, select “Corporate Account”

You'll be brought to the page below where you can access our account options:

Financial Summary - Need an invoice for a past payment or for your financial records? All transactions are tracked and stored here.

Corporate Contacts - Need to make roster changes for your membership? Then navigate over to corporate contacts so you can edit your rosters as you see fit.

Your Coupon Codes - Eno is always connecting people with the best information so that they can complete their duties more effectively. With that in mind, organizations and individuals will receive coupon codes throughout the year that you can access Eno's work.

Corporate Sponsors - Eno has an audience over 20,000 members strong, and there are multiple ways to reach them. Becoming a corporate sponsor for any number of our events or publications is a breeze thanks to our corporate sponsors tab. Navigate here to see past purchases and what programming works for you.

The screenshot displays the user interface for a corporate profile. On the left, the 'CORPORATE PROFILE' section features a placeholder for a profile picture and a green 'UPDATE CORPORATE PROFILE' button. On the right, the 'MANAGE YOUR ACCOUNT' section contains four menu items, each with an icon and a highlighted button:

- FINANCIAL SUMMARY (Icon: document with dollar sign) - View invoices & payments
- CORPORATE CONTACTS (Icon: briefcase) - Add, edit, or remove any contacts
- YOUR COUPON CODES (Icon: coupon) - View corporate coupons
- CORPORATE SPONSORS (Icon: hand holding dollar sign) - Become a sponsor/advertiser
